We are happy to announce that Don McKay has graciously offered to create a website for IPC. The address is: www.inmanpres.org. In the future, you will find lots of information about our church, its mission and history as well as on-going events and pictures. If you have any suggestions for the website please contact Judy Glassing (678-231-6077 cell). We are also looking for volunteers to serve on the Communications Committee with Judy.
